

“Last year, my husband was diagnosed with stage IV prostate cancer. As I found myself faced with losing him, I knew I needed to make preparations. My HR rep gave me a brochure for Everest, a funeral planning service that was part of my company’s benefits package. So I called. My Everest advisor, Tasha, was such a help. She guided me through the entire process step-by-step – helping me with every aspect of his funeral.

Everest did all of the research, the planning, the negotiating for me – so I could spend more time with my family.

Through my insurance provider’s partnership with Everest, I received my insurance payment within 48 hours of his passing, which meant I didn’t have to borrow from family to pay for the funeral. Another blessing. I am so grateful for those final days with him – focused on his life and his legacy. I tell everyone I know what a wonderful service Everest provided my family.”
